Commercial Advertising Agreement Binder

The undersigned agrees as outlined below to place a commercial on The Poconos Family Fun Show as indicated below.

Producers are not liable for any errors or omissions in commercial advertisements. In the event of error or omission, the producers will, to the best of ability, make the necessary attempts to correct any issue in a future broadcast but liability shall in no event exceed the producers cost of the advertisement.

Management reserves the right to cancel and reject any commercial at any time.

Contract for commercial broadcasting requires a consecutive six month minimum commitment of 26 weeks.

Payment and billing is to proceed in the following manner:

At the time of agreed upon and signed contract, cost of initial airing monthly commercial pre-payment shall be due. All commercials are to be pre-paid in advance before consecutive airings to abide by the terms of this contract. Due date deadline for pre-payment will be on the 1st of each month. Failure to comply with these payment terms will omit advertisers commercial from future airings until terms are met.

A notice of 30 days would be required to end agreement between parties.

All commercials or information for commercials are due by Producers deadline. It is the advertisers responsibility to provide all information to Producers by said date. No commercial may be canceled or revised after deadline.
